

Every Woman: Woman at the well

Dates: Friday 2 - Sunday 4 October 2020

Everyday women for every woman today

This annual retreat is an opportunity to explore the stories of everyday women in the Bible for every woman today.

The theme of the weekend is the story of the woman at the well and will include interactive sessions, connecting with others, a walk, time to relax together, and periods of rest and quiet.

The Methodist Church

This weekend is held in joint partnership between Cliff College and Girls' Brigade Ministries, and is supported through a Methodist Church Connexional Mission and Ministry Grant.

Every Woman: Woman at the well

A Samaritan woman. A well. You've heard the story. Of a woman craving acceptance, marred by her identity as a Samaritan. Of a woman who encounters Jesus and discovers truth. Of a woman so overwhelmed at the greatness of God that she worships Him by telling everybody in her town.

Are you longing to rediscover who God says you are?
Have you come to believe things that aren't true?
Do you need reminding of the greatness of God?

The woman at the well shows us what it is to worship God with our whole life – both head and heart. As worshippers we drink in God's living water, we remind ourselves who God says we are, and we give others the opportunity to know the truth for themselves.

'They are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks' - John Ch.4:23 (NIV).

Join us as we take a fresh look at this story through guided reflections, times of discussion and creative activities.

Cost: £180, which includes two nights' en-suite accommodation, all meals and materials.
